This book discusses management and governance initiatives undertaken by agencies and stakeholders towards achieving the Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs) in the Southeast Asian region, specifically Malaysia, Indonesia, Thailand and Singapore. It highlights the theories, methodologies and action plans involved in implementing the goals in these countries and the importance of developing a positive relationship between the public and government agencies. With contributors coming from a range of disciplines and backgrounds across the Association of Southeast Asian Nations (ASEAN) region, this edited collection provides a holistic quantitative and qualitative approach to achieving the SDGs. In order to realise these development objectives, it argues that a strong understanding of the basic principles of governance across all levels is required, supported by effective citizen participation and conflict resolution. It provides a detailed overview of the importance of governance at the country level, addressing the key elements of an integrated framework to support sustainable transitions. Regional case studies highlight processes and recommendations for improving governance and risk management and elevating citizen awareness and participation. Good Governance and the Sustainable Development Goals in Southeast Asia is a comprehensive and valuable companion for researchers, government agencies, and professionals with an interest in the SDGs in Southeast Asia and beyond.

Now an energy-rich sultanate, for centuries a important trading port in the South China Sea, Brunei has taken a different direction than its Persian Gulf peers. Immigration is restricted, and Brunei's hydrocarbon wealth is invested conservatively, mostly outside the country. Today home to some 393,000 inhabitants and comprising 5,765 square kilometers in area, Brunei first appears in the historical record at the end of the 10th century. After the Spanish attack of 1578, Brunei struggled to regain and expand its control on coastal West Borneo and to remain within the trading networks of the South China Sea. It later fell under British sway, and a residency was established in 1906, but it took the discovery of oil in Seria in 1929 before the colonial power began to establish the bases of a modern state. Governed by an absolute monarchy, Bruneians today nonetheless enjoy a high level of social protection and rule of law. Ranking second (after Singapore) in Southeast Asia in terms of standards of living, the sultanate is implementing an Islamic penal code for the first time of its history. Focusing on Brunei's political economy, history and geography, this book aims to understand the forces behind Brunei's to-and-fro of tradition and modernisation.

While the role of comparative law in the courts was previously only an exception, foreign sources are now increasingly becoming a source of law in regular use in supreme and constitutional courts. There is considerable variation between the practices of courts and the role of comparative law, and methods remain controversial. In the US, the issue has been one of intense public debate and it is still one of the major dividing issues in the discussion about the role of the courts. Contributing to the existing discussion of the use of comparative law in the courts, this book provides an inclusive, coherent, and practical analysis of the relevant law and jurisprudence in comparative law in the courts. It examines the consequences for court procedures and the form of judgments, as well as how foreign sources are drawn upon in private international law, European law, administrative law, and constitutional law as well as before general courts. The book also includes case studies of comparative law used in particular spheres of the law, such as tort law and consumer law. Written by practising judges and lawyers as well as leading academics, this book serves as a central reference point concerning the role of comparative law before the courts.

Buku ini disusun sebagai salah satu komitmen penulis terhadap keilmuan ekonomi syariah khususnya terkait perbankan syariah Penghargaan dan terima kasih yang setulus-tulusnya kepada seluruh pihak yang telah berkontribusi langsung maupun tidak langsung dalam penyelesaian buku ini

Kajian ini membuktikan bahwa mudarib yang trustworthy/amanah dan reliable dapat mereduksi agency problem dalam kontrak mudarabah pada perbankan syariah di Indonesia. Hasil temuan: 1. Dari perspektif statistik deskriptif: Perbankan syariah Indonesia menawarkan pembiayaan mudarabah kurang dari 20% dari seluruh pembiayaan, hal ini disebabkan karena tingkat risiko pembiayaan yang sangat tinggi pada produk mudarabah. Lebih dari 70% melakukan praktik mudarabah mutlaqah, dibandingkan dengan mudarabah muqayyadah, karena mudarabah muqayyadah secara operasional sulit dilakukan dan mengandung risiko reputasi. Sebagian besar pembiayaan mudarabah mempunyai tenor di bawah 3 tahun, hal ini disebabkan karena masa panen terjadi setelah 3 tahun dan utang lunas sesuai dengan umur ekonomis modal kerja. Lebih dari 60% bank syariah Indonesia mempunyai kontrak mudarabah pada industri perdagangan, karena perdagangan itu sederhana, mudah diawasi, risiko lebih kecil, dan turn over lebih cepat. 2. Dari perspektif analisis regresi: Riset ini kemudian mengidentifikasi secara kuantitatif indikator-indikator baik yang ada pada proyek maupun yang terdapat pada mudarib yang dipertimbangkan oleh sahibul mal dalam memberikan pembiayaan mudarabah. Terdapat 13 indikator yang berhubungan dengan proyek dan 15 indikator yang berhubungan dengan mudarib. Setelah dilakukan penyaringan secara statistik, ditemukan bahwa ada dua indikator utama yang berhubungan dengan proyek dan ada 3 indikator utama yang berhubungan dengan mudarib. Setelah dilakukan analisis gabungan antara indikator proyek dan indikator mudarib, akhirnya tiga indikator mudarib tersebut menjadi faktor yang paling mempengaruhi. Indikator-indikator ini terdapat pada dimensi Reputasi yang terdiri dari: Track Record (Rekam Jejak), Keahlian Sesuai dengan Bisnis, dan Familiar dengan Pasar.

Wakaf adalah warisan peradaban Islam yang banyak ditiru oleh peradaban lain di dunia. Bertahan lebih dari 1400 tahun menunjukkan bahwa wakaf bukan instrumen 'biasa' dalam membangun ekonomi ummat. Wakaf yang awalnya adalah benda tidak bergerak berupa tanah dan bangunan, sekarang menjadi wakaf uang dan wakaf benda bergerak lainnya. Ijtihad para ulama membolehkan wakaf uang menimbulkan inovasi yang luar biasa di bidang perwakafan. Hari ini, inovasi produk wakaf yang populer adalah Cash Waqf linked Sukuk. Kementerian keuangan langsung mengambil inisiatif mengeluarkan Sukuk Wakaf Ritel (SWR). Presiden, Wakil Presiden, Menteri keuangan, Menteri Agama, Badan Wakaf Indonesia juga menggalakkan wakaf uang lewat Gerakan Wakaf Uang Nasional Januari 2021 di Istana Negara. Tampaknya, wakaf merupakan instrumen ekonomi Islam yang akan dikembangkan untuk meningkatkan perekonomian di Indonesia. Buku ini berisi 30 tulisan mengenai wakaf dan ekonomi Syariah yang sudah terbit di berbagai media cetak, baik dalam bentuk surat kabar, majalah, dan bulletin. Tulisan ini dimuat dalam kurun waktu Januari 2020 hingga Januari 2022. Untuk mengembangkan perwakafan, diperlukan ekosistem ekonomi Syariah baik dari sisi makro maupun mikronya, tidak ketinggalan teknologi digital. Oleh karena itu, dibahas juga beberapa isu ekonomi Syariah dalam Bagian 2 buku ini yang terdiri atas 12 tulisan, yaitu: Prospek Keuangan Syariah di daerah, Divine Economics, Economic Struggle in Pandemic Covid 19, “Puasa, Dhuafa dan Gasebu”, Ekonomi Syariah dan New Normal, Si Miskin Berkurban, Hijrah Menuju Kemerdekaan Ekonomi, Ekonomi Syariah dan Pancasila, Digitalisasi dan 2021, Membangun Ekonomi Manusiawi, Lebaran Cerdas, serta Korban dan Koperasi Syariah.
