the title character Eva Peron, it was titled "It's Only Your Lover Returning" before Rice settled on the eventual name. It appears early in the second act as Evita addresses the crowd from the balcony of the Casa Rosada and features a sweeping melody tied to broad emotional themes of regret and defiance, characteristic of Lloyd Webber's most popular songs. The song shares its tune with "Oh What a Circus" and "Eva's Final Broadcast" from the same show. The musical Evita was initially produced as an album, before being adapted for...
