Israel apologized for the attack, saying that the USS Liberty had been attacked in error after being mistaken for an Egyptian ship. Both the Israeli and U.S. governments conducted inquiries and issued reports that concluded the attack was a mistake due to Israeli confusion about the ship's identity. Others, including survivors of the attack, have rejected these conclusions and maintain that the attack was deliberate. In May 1968, the Israeli government paid US$3.32 million to the U.S. government compilation by Ray Songtree Most accounts of the attack on the USS Liberty off the coast of Gaza in 1967 blame the Israelis. Then President Johnson is blamed for abandoning the ship, in order to not embarrass ally Israel for it's "mistake." However, Johnson is quoted as saying "I want that goddamn ship going to the bottom!"
