In the distress and fear of the moment, they forgot God. God knew this tendency in the people. Moses had seen this tendency in the people. So he reminds them repeatedly in Deuteronomy (which is, after all, the collection of Moses ' final addresses to the people) to be careful not to forget all that God had done.

Forgetting God by Benjamin Shaw - Ligonier Ministries

Men God Forgot Quotes Showing 1-3 of 3 " What drew him towards the outside was not the student, not the goat, not even the man in the down-at-heel shoes who joined them. Simply the street, like a blanched life-drained cadaver, fettered his whole attention.

Men God Forgot Quotes by Albert Cossery - Goodreads

We know that God does not " remember " things in the sense that He has forgotten. Unlike our own limited brains, the mind of God is infinite and all-knowing (Isaiah 40:13–14; Psalm 147:5; 1 John 3:20). His knowledge is perfect (Job 37:16). God even sees the hidden things that others cannot: " Nothing in all creation is hidden from God ' s sight.
