Joan Bauer Rules of the Road - Joan Bauer

Rules of the Road is a young adult contemporary novel by Joan Bauer. First published in 1998 and the first book in the Rules of the Road series, the book follows a young girl on a road trip with her employer who teaches her about life, love, and relationships. The book received an overwhelmingly positive response upon publication, and it won the 1998 Los Angeles Times Book Prize for Young Adult Literature.

Rules of the Road Summary | SuperSummary

Blinking yellow lights when you're about to do something stupid. Stop signs in front of people who could hurt you. Green lights shining when you're doing the right thing. It would make the whole experience easier.” ? Joan Bauer, Rules of the Road. 32 likes. Like. “Some things go too deep for words.”.

Rules of the Road Quotes by Joan Bauer - Goodreads

The rules apply to all road users: drivers, pedestrians, motorcyclists, horse riders, cyclists and those in charge of animals. The rules ask us to take personal responsibility for our use of the road, and in doing so become better, safer and more socially responsible road users.

The Rules of the Road are for all road users – drivers, pedestrians, motorcyclists, horse riders and cyclists. The rules form the basis of road safety in Ireland. You must know these rules well in order to be a safe and socially responsible driver and pass your driver theory test and practical driving test. Once you have passed your driver theory test, you can apply to your local NDLS centre for a learner permit (enclosing your driver theory test certificate).
