In the last few minutes Judge Mehta held a hearing for the Kennedy v Trump case which was the case with about 1000 plaintiffs seeking some additional relief separate to (or in addition to) the Gomez cases. The legal team had filed a 1200 page complaint in this case, and the Judge was clear that he had not had sufficient time to digest all of it. Pretty early on in the hearing the Judge was keen to see why the additional case was even necessary since the Gomez case had already achieved some ...
